ABOUT US

Colro Global was established in the year 1980 in the bustling city of Delhi, the illustrious capital of India in order to tackle the scarcity of attaining excellent quality of bathroom fittings. Our organisation strives to be the very best and provide the very best for all needs through the means of hard work, inspired leadership and an unmatched zeal to perform and deliver. Since our inception, our company has achieved mastery in sanitaryware and our absolute speciality is that of faucets.

We believe in continuous improvement in the area of delivery and hence have adopted a dynamic model of manufacturing thus allowing us to adapt and evolve with the growing trends in the industry. Our technological superiority has established its own quality and performance. Colro Global has had the pleasure of serving a multitude of 100s of clients in 13+ states throughout the map of our motherland. Our wide range of products offer a simplistic and reliable solution to the problem of optimal quality.

Our company is trusted and reputed amongst its customers for providing the very best for all your bathroom needs. It always works in close harness with its customers through its skill and outstanding team of human resources. We take pride in our products and critically analyse how we can best serve our customers.
